Conduct

The Porquis Agricultural Society is a non-profit organization. Their Directors and Committees consists of many volunteers who dedicate their time and effort in order to present a safe, educational and fun weekend for families in our community. As a participate in our event, we, the directors and committees, expect you and your staff/volunteers to support the efforts put out by our members by displaying respectful conduct towards members of the society, exhibitors, other vendors and the public visiting our event. Any behaviours deemed inappropriate, offensive, confrontational and/or physical in any manner will be dealt with immediately. Consequences will vary depending on the offence and can go anywhere from being asked to leave the grounds to refusal of booth rentals in following years. All incidents during the event hours would be reported immediately to the booth directors. It is our sincere hope that everyone participating at our event will have a pleasant experience and all involved will ensure our Event to be a successful one.
